DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

IEEE LEADERSHIP SUMMIT 2023

FASTN WORKSHOP on 13-10-2023 REPORT

IEEE:

The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) is a for electronics engineering, electrical engineering, and other related disciplines with its corporate office in New York City and its operations center in Piscataway, New Jersey. The IEEE was formed from the amalgamation of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers in 1963.

The IEEE is a renowned global professional organization dedicated to advancing technology for the benefit of humanity. IEEE has been at the forefront of innovation, connecting technology professionals, researchers, and practitioners from various fields across the world.

IEEE Leadership Summit:

IEEE Education Society YP Committee aims to carry out a series of events that has been designed for both IEEE members and others through an Event named "IEEE Education Society Leadership Summit 2023". We at our society have curated the project in Education Society vision to engulf the objectives of our community and fulfill the mission and vision of the policies of qualitative education forum and policies. We will organize a series of activities stimulated focusing on student, organization units and Education Society and YP members membership development and retention.

The project aims to build the next generation leaders through driving the members of the Education Society and YP through a specialized IEEE Education Society Leadership Summit 2023. The Project visions in building an Industry forum that connects industrial experts to serve the technical community helping them with advancing Tech trends in the field of Technology and based smart cities. We will be happy to drive the synchronization of student branches Education Society student chapter at ANITS SB, active units working collaterally with inactive and new student, YP and Professional memberships to build a network of well-established organizational units and support in the global events.

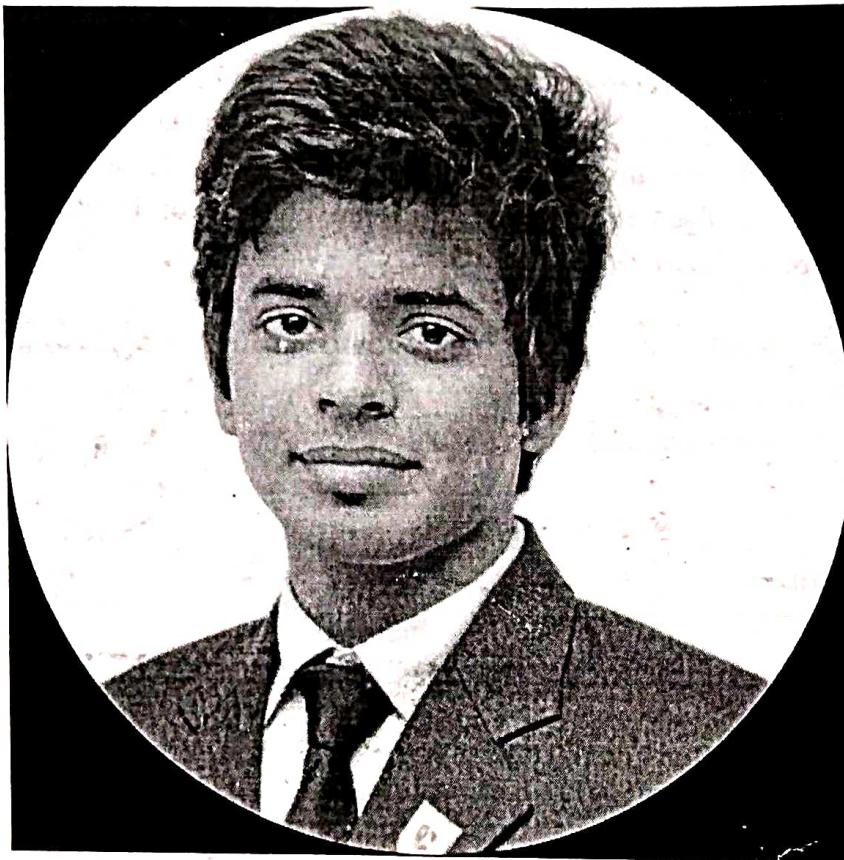

To provide members who have an interest in the IEEE designated fields or related professions with opportunities for educational, technical, and professional development, emphasizing the value of continuing IEEE membership.

FASTN:

fastn is an open-source, full-stack framework that simplifies the creation of content-heavy websites. Its custom language, FTD, is designed for easy learning.

HOST:

The event was hosted by Mr. Ajit Garg, who was working as a DevRel at Fifthtry.

Workshop was hosted on this external site called Luma.

What was taught?

- Data Modelling
- Understanding loops
- Headers
- Visibility
- Commenting
- Kernel Components
- Attributes
- Functions
- Built-in rive functions
- Built-in local storage functions
- ftd events
- How to create color scheme
- Use color scheme package
- How to access fonts
- How to access files
- Built-in Functions

Conclusion:

This fastn workshop was an eye-opening experience that taught the students valuable skills and knowledge about full-stack web development. The workshop provided an in-depth understanding of fastn, a modern and intuitive web development framework.

Throughout the workshop, students learned how to perform various tasks such as data modelling, utilizing loops, headers, and visibility. They also explored the usage of kernel components, attributes, functions, and built-in rive functions.

Additionally, students gained knowledge on accessing fonts, files, and built-in function usage. Lastly, they learned how to create color schemes, use color scheme packages, and access local storage files.

In conclusion, the fastn workshop has significantly improved our students understanding of web development and has equipped them with the necessary skills to excel in this field. The workshop also showcased the versatility and potential of fastn as a cutting-edge web development framework.
